

The highest settlement in "High Leicestershire", Tilton is always a good venue for a walk. There are several scenic routes through high rolling farmland with great views and on a shining day like this you can't go wrong. Juliet and Teri had planned a very intelligent circuit using a lot of surfaced lanes to avoid the swamp-like fields and the 14 of us had a splendid outing in the bright winter sunshine.

